

I am writing my concern with what happened on the half time show during the super bowl. My children, husband and I were outraged to witness such lurid behavior. We are concerned with many shows on regular television and cable that is so explicit. It is making us consider getting rid of the television altogether. There are some learning shows that we enjoy. Please do what you can to make sure that things like this do not make their way on televsion.

Sincerely, Laura Hanson